MONDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 19.

SIR HENRY HOLLAND. - A happy man is Sir Heury Holland, and a model man, we should think. Born in 1787, he still lives .-He made his first visit to Iceland in 1810, and repeated it after the lapse of 61 years, an interval longer than the period ordinarily allotted to life. He has pursued the St. Lawrence for 2,000 miles of its lake and river course, and has navigated the waters of the Upper Mississippi for 100 miles below the Falls of St. An thony. The Ohio, Susquehanna, Potomac, Connecticut and Ottawa Rivers he also carefully explored. There is not a part of Europe trial he was called as a witness. He has known the intimate friends of Dr. Johnson, travelled the intimate friends of Dr. Johnson, travelled the intimate friends of Dr. Johnson, travelled tip and the intimate friends of Dr. Johnson, travelled tip and the states and the age of this order, and do what is necessary to protect their interests in this suit; and that a copy of this order be forthwith inserted in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the eighty-two (in 1869) he was here again-the guest of Mr. Evarts and of Thurlow Weed .- city of Alexandria, once a week for four succes-Since then he has made a voyage to Jamaica and the West Iodia Islands, and visited Iceland. He was a friend of Sir Walter Scott. Lockhart, Dugald Stewart, Mme. de Stael. Byron, Moore, Campbell, Rogers, Crabbe, Wordsworth, Coleriege, Talleyrand, Sydney Smith, Macaulay, Hallam, Mackintosh, Malthus, Erskine, Humboldt, Schlegal, Canova, Sir Humphrey Davy, Joanna Baillie, Lord and Lady Holland; and in this country, Edward Everett, Daniel Webster, Henry Clay, Abraham Lincoln, Seward, &c. He was physician to Queen Caroline, Prince Albert, Queen Victoria, and has been consulted by most of the suffered much sorrow. Pecuniary care has always been a stranger to him. His health has, "with rare exceptions," been "singular y good." Every year he has taken a long hon day-not less than two months-and spent it in travel, carrying with him two or three books, a light heart, and a full purse. He estimates that at least twelve years of his life have been passed in these voyages. He has never had a personal controversy or quarrel. His children have never been other than a source of happiness to him. Survel we may say that the duration of this strange life is its least remarkable peculiarity. He once lived next door to Byron's "Maid of Athens," and he says of her — ther youthful beauty, though somewhat em-Stael when the entry of the allied armies into Paris was announced. "Her emotion was great and ardently expressed." He was dancing with Murat and his Queen at Naples when in Holles st., London, who was suffering from severe gastric fever. A lady was anxiously attending upon him. The lady was Queen Hortense, and the young man was Louis Napoleon. Forty years afterward Sir Henry visited the Americans he has given professional advice to Daniel Webster, Mr. Lincoln and Jefferson Davis. He was several times consulted by the too celebrated Mrs. Fizherbert. He knew Sir Philip Francis, the reputed author of Junius. Indeed, there is scarcely a prominent man of the century when Sir Heart Man Heart Man Mary V., his wife; Elizabeth M. Veitch, Silas Veitch and Rebecca, his wife and Daniel A. Veitch defendants. In chargery same man an exile at Chiselhurst. Among Americans he has given professional advice to Daniel Webster, Mr. Lincoln and Jefferson man of the century whom Sir Henry Holland has not known more or less familiarly.

Try it, if you have not done so already, and though you may have used something before, or for years even, yet we can assure you that after giv-ing CRYSTAL DISCOVERY a trial, you will gladly discard your previous favorite. druggist has not got it, take no other, for this is the only preparation you can use with safety, and which will perform its functions promptly.
